NEGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

An Ordinance amending and Supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Four, Public Places and Property, Article I, Public Rights of Way, Chapter 419, Regulated Activities, Section 419.04 Business and Political Advertising, by permitting limited advertising on property which is owned or controlled by the City for business or political purposes to generate revenue.

Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Pittsburgh as follows:

Section 1. The Pittsburgh Code, Title Four, Public Places and Property, Article I, Public Rights of Way, Chapter 419, Regulated Activities, Section 419.04 Business and Political Advertising, is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

419.04 BUSINESS AND POLITICAL ADVERTISING.

[No person shall display any advertising matter on any property which is owned or controlled by the City for either business or political purposes, except as provided under § 419.06 of this Chapter, and no display shall be made in connection with any municipal, state or national election of pictures or written matter relating to the various candidates for office. Where any City property is used for a polling place, sample ballots may be displayed, but no display shall be made of any one (1) or more candidates, or of any matter relating to candidates other than a formal notice relating to all the candidates of all parties.]

Advertising is permitted on any property which is owned or controlled by the City, subject to Title IX of the Pittsburgh Zoning Code, for business purposes. No display shall be made in connection with any municipal, state or national election of pictures or written matter relating to the various candidates for office. Where any City property is used for a polling place, sample ballots may be displayed, but no display shall be made of any one (1) or more candidates, or of any matter relating to candidates other than a formal notice relating to all the candidates of all parties."

These regulations apply except as provided under § 419.06.
