WHEREAS, the Institute for Democracy and Mediation (IDM) in Albania is committed to the concept of community policing; and

WHEREAS, IDM, through the leadership of Executive Director Sotirag Hroni, has successfully partnered with the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police and the University of Pittsburgh, Graduate School of Public & International Affairs, and the Center for Russian and East European Studies; and

WHEREAS, the partnership between IDM, the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police and the University of Pittsburgh, Graduate School of Public & International Affairs and the Center for Russian and East European Studies has allowed for a free exchange of ideas and concepts through three academies held in Pittsburgh for various Albanian police officers, community members and government dignitaries; and

WHEREAS, the partnership between IDM, the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police and the University of Pittsburgh, Graduate School of Public & International Affairs, and the Center for Russian and East European Studies has led to on-site instructional visits to Albania by members of the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police and the University of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Albania are now benefiting from the delivery of community based policing that has increased citizen satisfaction and lowered criminal activity,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh commends the efforts of the Institute for Democracy and Mediation in Albania on their commitment to community policing; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh proclaims that Tuesday, June 10th, 2008 be hereby declared as “Academy on Community Policing in Albania Day” in the City of Pittsburgh.
