Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Pittsburgh as follows:

Section 1.

WHEREAS, by deed dated August 26, 1969, the City of Pittsburgh conveyed to the Perry Athletic Association title to nine parcels of real property located along Garvin Street in the 26th Ward for the operation of a Little League baseball field;

WHEREAS, said deed provided that title to said properties would revert to the City if they were no longer used for recreational purposes;

WHEREAS, prior to 1969, the Perry Athletic Association had acquired title to four additional parcels which are also part of the site where the baseball field is located;

WHEREAS, by Resolution No. 307, approved May 17, 1976, a portion of Garvin Street was vacated from Swanson Street to a point 131.87 feet westerly, and the Perry Athletic Association became the legal owner
