Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title SEVEN, Business Licensing, Article IX, Amusement Businesses, by adding Chapter 781 titled Sexually Oriented Businesses

WHEREAS, Adult Businesses are guaranteed important rights to Free Speech by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, as well as other rights such as Due Process and Equal Protection under that same charter; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh through its Zoning Code must make reasonable and real accommodations to permit the practice of various kinds of Adult Business within its boundaries in order to act in compliance with these constitutional guarantees; and has in fact introduced such amendments to its Zoning Use Regulations in Title NINE, Article V, Section 911.02 in order to allow Adult Entertainment as a use Permitted by Right in certain and sufficient districts; and

WHEREAS, it has been demonstrated empirically time and again that Sexually Oriented Businesses which provide Adult Entertainment tend in the aggregate to contribute toward serious deleterious Secondary Effects which can be visited upon its own Patrons and Employees, on the surrounding Neighborhood, and on the Region as a whole; and

WHEREAS, these predictable and deleterious Secondary Effects include increases in certain kinds of Crime, and decreases in Property Values through the effects of this Crime and the resulting Blight and Disinvestment;

WHEREAS, entrepreneurial interest in launching new Sexually Oriented Businesses within the City of Pittsburgh has recently increased significantly ever since economic development has increased generally, especially on or near the North Shore, and particularly in connection with the opening of a state-licensed Gaming Casino on the western edge of the City; and

WHEREAS, this government has a substantial interest in and responsibility toward protecting its citizens from the deleterious Secondary Effects of Adult Entertainment, even while it must honor its commitment to zealously protect Free Speech and other Constitutional Rights for Sexually Oriented Business owners and employees; and

WHEREAS, the proper, well-established and repeatedly judicially reaffirmed method of balancing these rights and interests is to enact reasonable and effective Time, Place and Manner restrictions upon Sexually Oriented Businesses and the practice of Adult Entertainment with the aim of mitigating these Secondary Effects, of the type which the City now also enacts as companion legislation through Title SIX, Chapter 625 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, a reasonable and practical system of Business Licensing is necessary to oversee and enforce such Conduct restrictions;

The Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven, Business Licensing, Article IX, Amusement Businesses, is hereby supplemented by adding Chapter 781 as follows:

(1) a licensee failed to provide all information and documents required for issuance of the license as requested on the application form, or provided information or documents as requested on the application that are false;

(2) the licensee(s) failed to comply with any requirement stated in the license, pursuant to this Ordinance, to correct specified deficiencies within 120 days;

781.11 APPEAL RIGHTS

(a) Any denial, suspension, or revocation of a license under this Ordinance may be appealed to the Disruptive Properties Appeals Board by written notice within ten (10) days of such denial, suspension, or revocation. Unless the applicant requests a longer period, the Disruptive Properties Appeals Board must hold a hearing on the appeal within sixty (60) days and must issue a decision affirming or reversing the denial, suspension, or revocation within five (5) days after the hearing. During the time between the dates of the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license and the date of the Disruptive Properties Appeals Board decision affirming or reversing the denial, suspension, or revocation, the status quo of the license holder or applicant shall be maintained.

(b) In the event that the Appeals Board denies, suspends, or revokes a new or renewal license under this Ordinance, or any action taken on an appeal that is provided by this ordinance, the applicant may pursue an appeal to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas. The failure of the City to render a decision on the application within the time prescribed in sub-section (A) above shall be considered an affirmation of the denial, suspension, or revocation of the license and the applicant may pursue an appeal to the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas. This appeal provision is intended to comply with the requirement for prompt judicial review stated by the United States Supreme Court in *Township of Littleton, Colorado v. Z. J. (c) Any licensee lawfully operating a sexually oriented business prior to the denial of a license renewal application, or the suspension or revocation of a license, shall retain said license and all privileges attendant thereto, subject to all other terms of this Ordinance, so that the status quo of the licensee is maintained during the pendency of an appeal to the Disruptive Properties Appeals Board of a decision rendered under this Ordinance and during the entire time required for the court to rule on the appeal pursuant to sub-section (B) above.

(d) Any licensee lawfully acting as an employee in a sexually oriented business prior to the denial of a license renewal application, or the suspension or revocation of a license, shall retain said license and all privileges attendant thereto, subject to all other terms of this Ordinance, so that the status quo of the licensee is maintained during the pendency of an appeal to the Disruptive Properties Appeals Board of a decision rendered under this Ordinance and during the entire time required for the court to rule on the appeal pursuant to sub-section (B) above.

(e) In the event that any judicial review of the denial of a new or renewal license application or the revocation or suspension of a license is still pending thirty (30) days before the expiration date of any license, the licensee may file a renewal license application with Department of Public Safety or its designee pursuant to this Ordinance. In the event that an application for renewal of a license is denied and the applicant seeks judicial review of that denial, the City has the right to consolidate such review with any pending judicial actions in regards to the previous denial, suspension or revocation of a license.

(f) If, during the pendency of any appeal pursued under sub-section (B) above, there are additional denials of a renewal license application or suspensions or revocations of that license, the City has the right to consolidate the appeal pursued under Section (XI), sub-section (B) above for the additional denials, suspensions or revocations with any pending appeal for that same licensee.

781.12 TRANSFER OF LICENSE

(a) A sexually oriented business license is not transferable from one licensee to another or from one location to another. Any purported transfer of a sexually oriented business license shall automatically and immediately revoke that license.

(b) An employee license is not transferable from one licensee to another, but the use of the license by the individual to whom it was issued may be transferred from one licensed sexually oriented business to another such licensed establishment during the term of the license, provided that the licensee gives written notice of such transfer to the Department of Public Safety or its designee within fifteen (15) days of such transfer.
