Introduced: 7/21/2009

Bill No: 2009-1666, Version: 1

Committee: City Council

Status: Adopted

WHEREAS, Brad Childs, Chris Weber and Eyetique have teamed up with Animal Rescue Flights (ARF) to support the movement to end canine euthanasia in the United States; and

WHEREAS, ARF promotes, plans and transports animals from overcrowded shelters to other parts of the country where qualified families are waiting to adopt them; and

WHEREAS, through the Pittsburgh eyewear company's new storewide campaign, "Puppy Eyes," Eyetique customers and the general public are getting a chance to make a difference; and

WHEREAS, the goal of "Puppy Eyes" is to collect 50,000 pounds of dog food, about a year's worth for Georgia-area shelters, which have a very high kill rate; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Childs hopes to caravan the supplies to the region on August 18th by plane and on the ground; and

WHEREAS, after delivery, the caravan will begin an important second phase: bringing the dogs back to northeast non-kill shelters that have high adoption rates.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes Brad. Childs, Chris Weber and Eyetique's "Puppy Eyes" campaign for their positive influence and care provided to animals; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares July 21, 2009, "Puppy Eyes Day" in the City of Pittsburgh.
