WHEREAS, children who are chronically absent from school perform worse and are at a higher risk of dropping out than children who regularly attend school; and,

WHEREAS, the United Way of Allegheny County is determined to reduce this problem through their adoption of the "Be There" campaign, which encourages peers and adults to 'be there' for kids and to encourage children to stay in school; and,

WHEREAS, the "Be There" campaign is a nation-wide multimedia and awareness campaign dedicated to and focused on getting parents and community members more involved in children's education in order to help increase and maintain school attendance rates; and,

WHEREAS, educators and parents throughout the City of Pittsburgh have pledged their support for the "Be There" campaign; and,

WHEREAS, the efforts made by these parents, teachers, educators and mentors have had lasting impacts on the lives and attendance records of Pittsburgh school children; and,

WHEREAS, the United Way of Allegheny County is holding an awards ceremony on May 29, 2014 to honor the following adults who have pledged to "be there" for our children-those who have made lasting contributions to the City of Pittsburgh's youth through their tireless dedication and support.
