WHEREAS, nearly 30 percent of children in Pittsburgh - 14,553 out of 49,167 - live in poverty, and 73.11 percent of Pittsburgh Public Schools (PPS) students - 18,868 students total - receive either free or reduced-price lunch; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh's City Parks & Recreation (Citiparks) partners with PPS to expand its summertime and afterschool meals programs and increase the number of participating youth at multiple child-serving sites, where 6,946 children received daily meals in 2013;

WHEREAS, less than 40 percent of the children who participate in the National School Lunch Program participate in the Summer Food Service Program, which indicates limited awareness and, in turn, underutilization of existing Citiparks meal programs;

WHEREAS, participation in the National League of Cities' Cities Combating Hunger through Afterschool and Summer Meals (CHAMPS) initiative will provide a key impetus for building the City of Pittsburgh's capacity to raise awareness of, and increase participation in, the federal afterschool and summer meals programs across our 90 distinct neighborhoods, by leveraging the City's Live Well Pittsburgh initiative to increase awareness and participation building out the Healthy Together tier of Live Well to include the Grow. Cook. Eat. campaign.
