WHEREAS, May 18th, 2018 has been designated as the 20th Annual "Take a Father to School Day" in the Pittsburgh Public Schools; and,

WHEREAS, this annual event involves every branch of the Pittsburgh Public School District and has attracted, annually, over 6,000 fathers and male guardians for the last three years; and,

WHEREAS, it is important to include 'positive male role models' in the definition of "father" for the purpose of highlighting the inclusive nature of this event; and,

WHEREAS, the goal of Take a Father to School Day is to bring men into the school building to establish better communications with schools; understand that they are welcomed in schools; and explore opportunities for volunteering and becoming more involved in their child's education. Research suggests that the involvement of fathers exerts a distinct and independent influence on whether children ever repeat a grade, get mostly A's, enjoy school, and participate in extracurricular activities; and,

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh Public Schools would like to acknowledge this year's partners: the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh and the Pittsburgh Pirates as well as the men's groups and a variety of organizations that have continued to support the success of this initiative:

- 100 Black Men of Western Pennsylvania
